The Christian life is a life worth living — in fact it is the only kind of life worth living. Here at the Washington Bible College can be seen examples of many types of Christians, yet all with one thing in common — Jesus Christ. By presenting the student body of W.B.C. the 1969 Milestone endeavors to present an anthology of the Christian life — its ups and downs — yet all to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ, "that in all things He might have the pre-eminence."

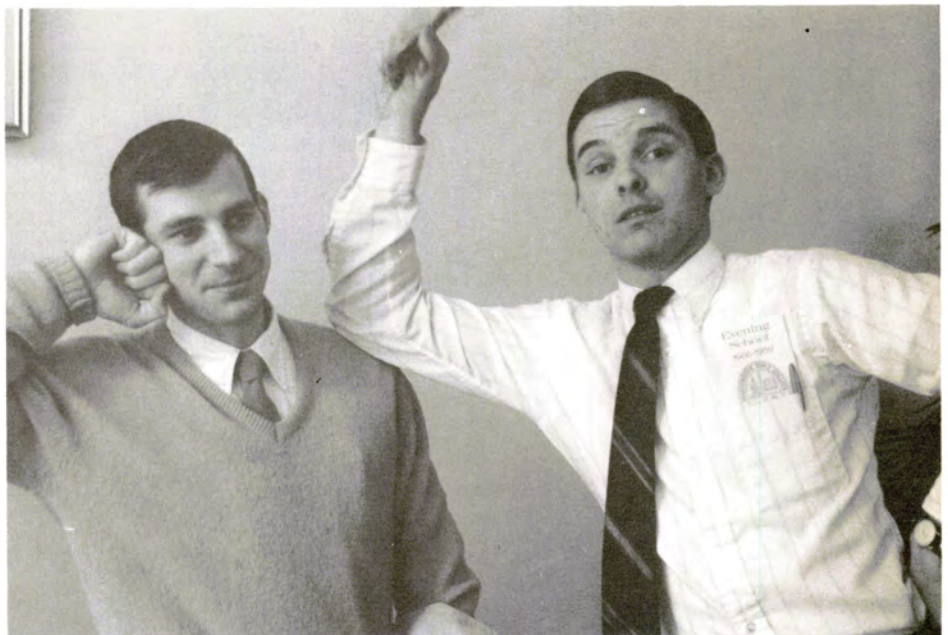

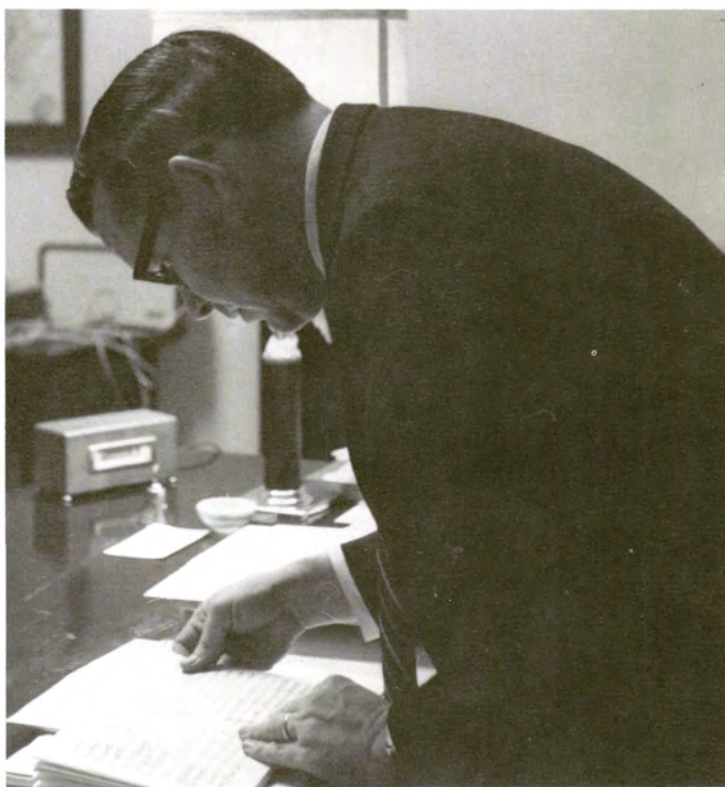

DEDICATION

"The prosperity of a country depends not on the abundance of its revenues, the strength of its fortifications, or the beauty of its public buildings; but it consists in the number of its cultivated citizens, in its men of education, enlightenment and character." — Luther

The 1969 Milestone wishes to recognize one such a person who has made the Washington Bible College a better school to attend — Professor James E. Lynn

FACULTY AND STAFF

PRESIDENT GEORGE A. MILES

President and Mrs. Miles

The key to successful growth in the Christian life is founded upon a proper and satisfying relationship to our Lord Jesus Christ. The diligent study of the Scriptures continually develops our understanding. Knowledge leads to yielding and yielding to the Spirit's control. The brief years spent at Washington Bible College are profitable only as they afford opportunity to become so intimately aware of the potential of a life unreservedly controlled by Christ that this leads to the joyous experience of "For me to live is Christ." This point of growth opens a vast horizon of possible fields of witness that the yielded heart eagerly longs to enter. We pray that every graduate will have ears only for the voice of His Lord.

BIBLE COLLEGE

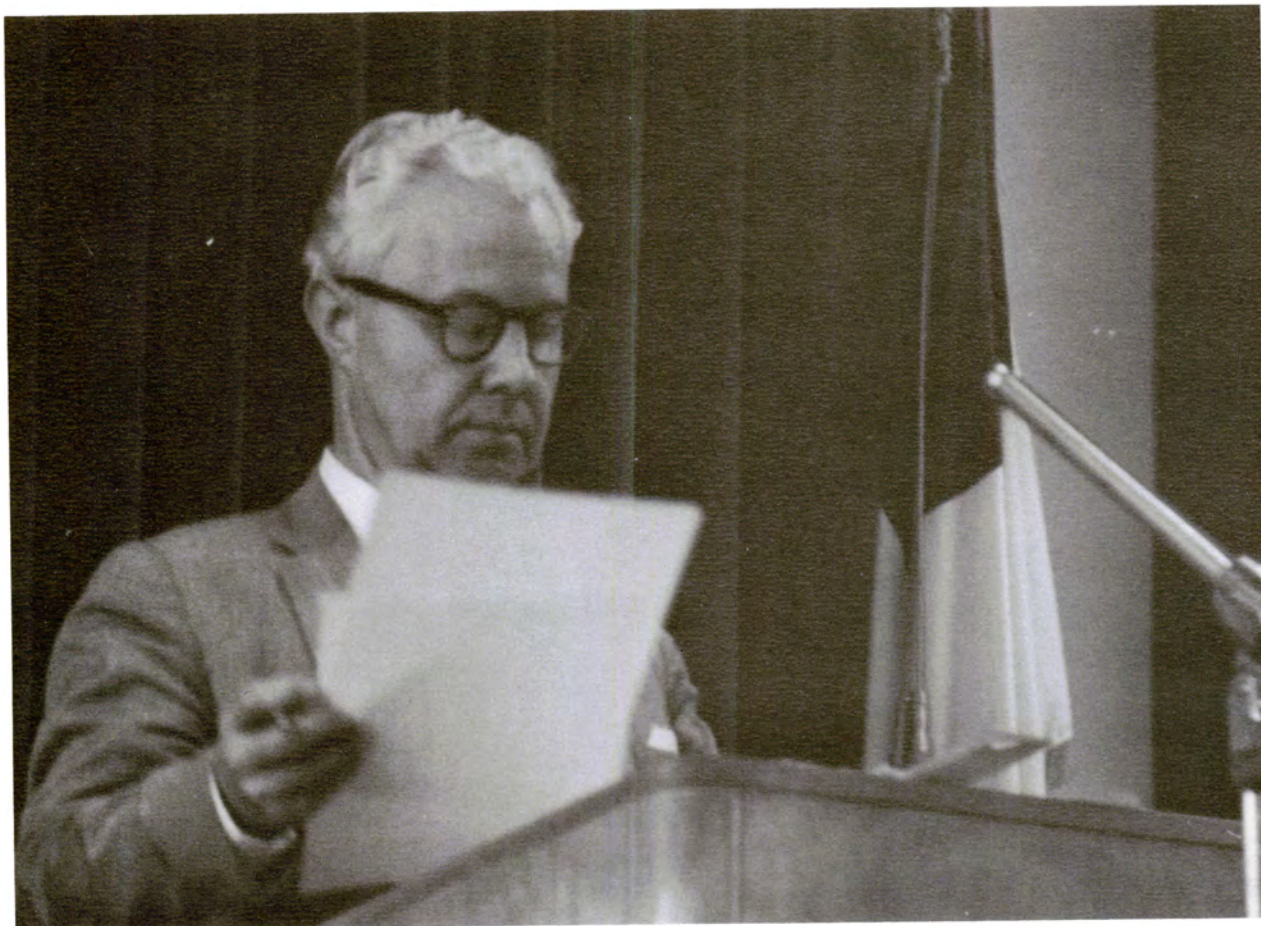

DIVISIONS AND DEPARTMENTS

DIVISION OF BIBLICAL EDUCATION

The Washington Bible College was organized as an institution for concentrated, systematic Bible training. Through the years of the school's existence this initial purpose has not changed. The Word of God alone has the answers to the need of today's dying world and it is desired that each student be thoroughly grounded in it through studies in the Old and New Testament as well as in systematic Biblical theology.

DEPARTMENT OF NEW TESTAMENT

PROF. DAVID K. JOHNSON

DEPARTMENT OF
SYSTEMATIC BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

PROFESSOR PAUL MANGUM

DIVISION OF GENERAL EDUCATION

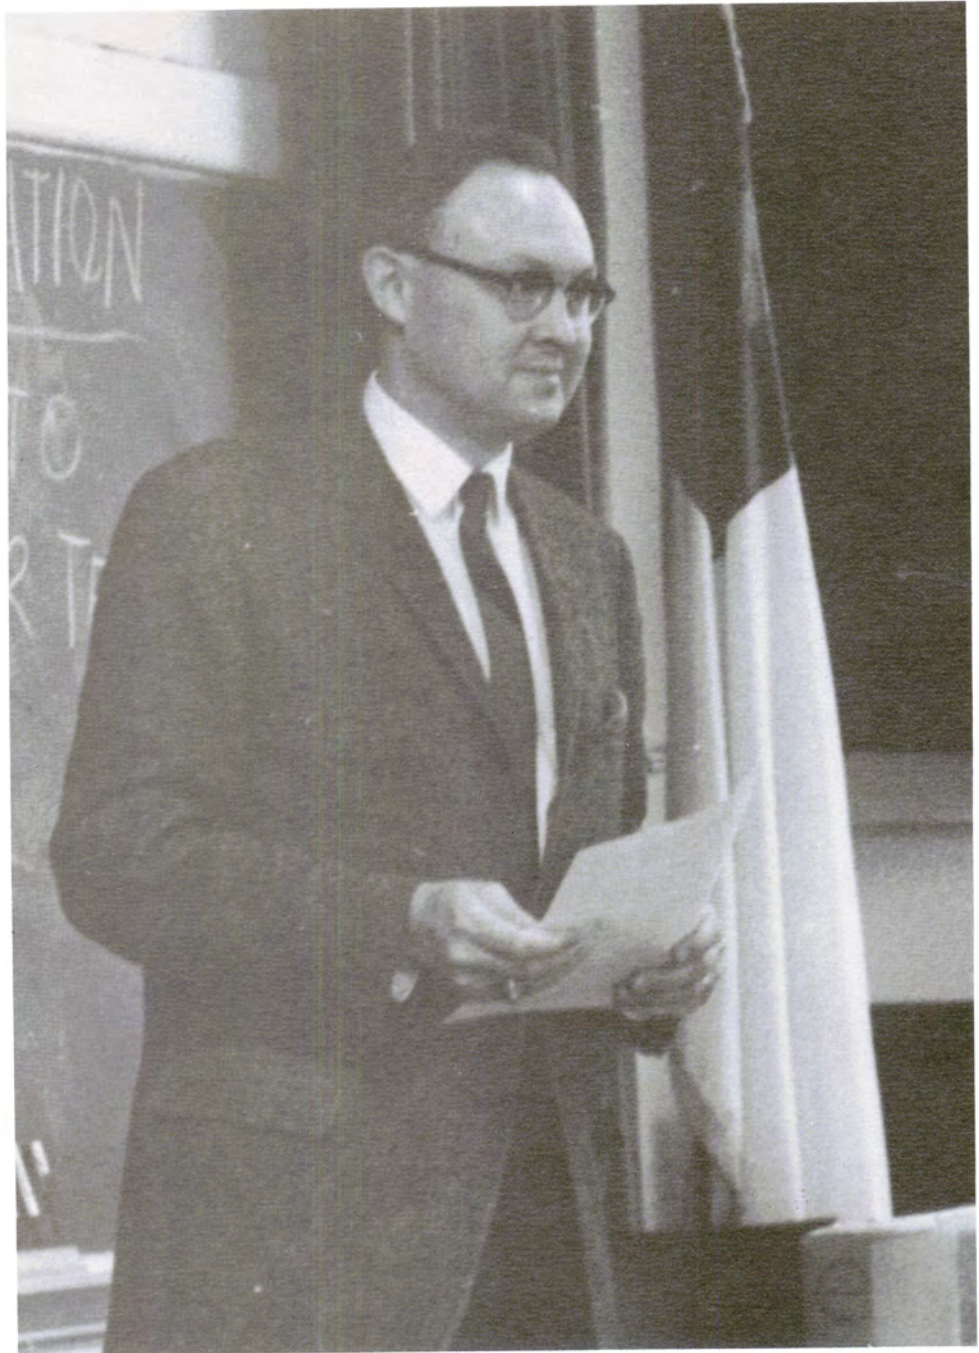

Several areas of study are offered to the student in order to help him be a well-rounded student, one able to communicate the Word of God and communicate it effectively. Included in this area of education are language and literature studies, cultural and social studies, and training in the area of public speaking and preaching.

DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES

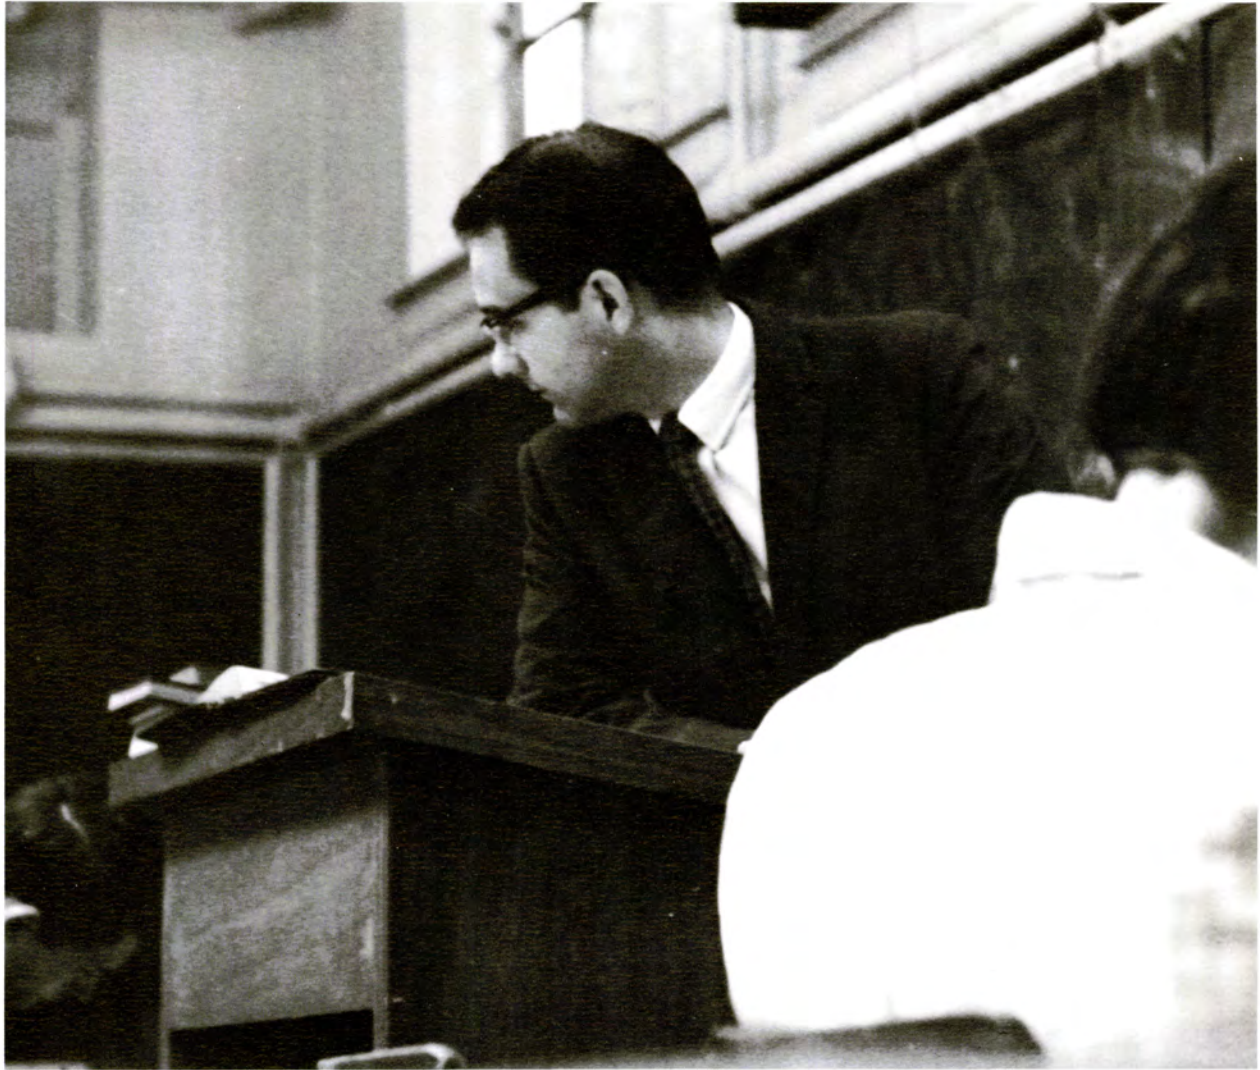

PROFESSOR IRIS MAURER

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL STUDIES

PROFESSOR WILLIAM POSTON

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION

PROF. JAMES S. SCHUPPE

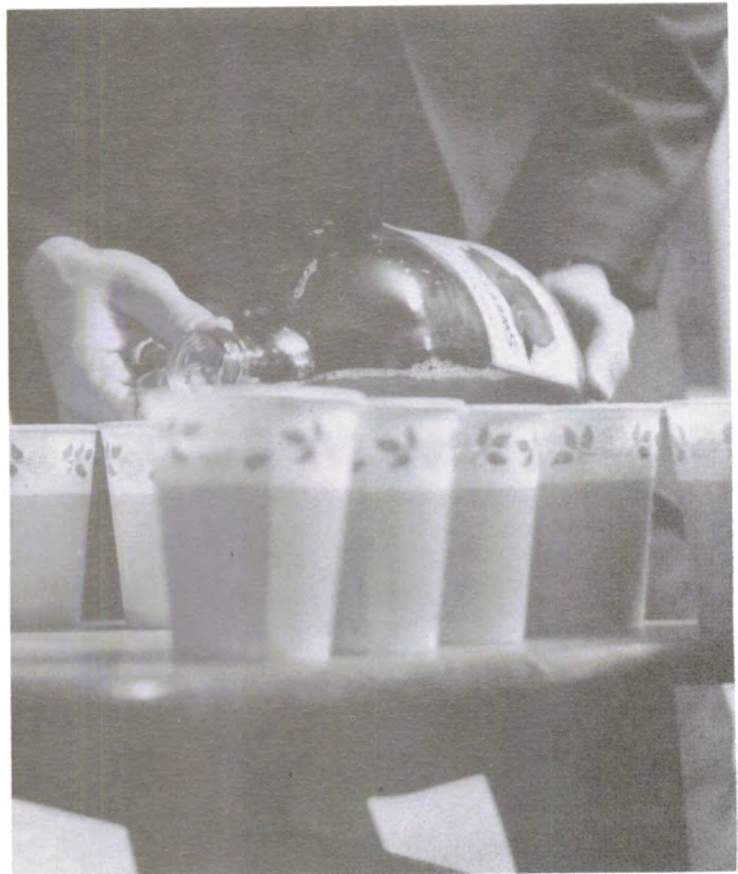

DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

Each student at Washington Bible College majors in Bible study. This study is broken down into four different areas of emphasis based on various types of Christian ministries. These emphases are in Christian Education, Missions, Pastoral Studies and Sacred Music. As the student is lead by the Spirit of God he chooses one of these areas and is guided in that field during his four years of study.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PROF. WESLEY R. WILLIS

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

PROF. DONALD R. RICKARDS

DEPARTMENT OF
PASTORAL STUDIES

PROF. CHARLES OLSEN

DEPARTMENT OF SACRED MUSIC

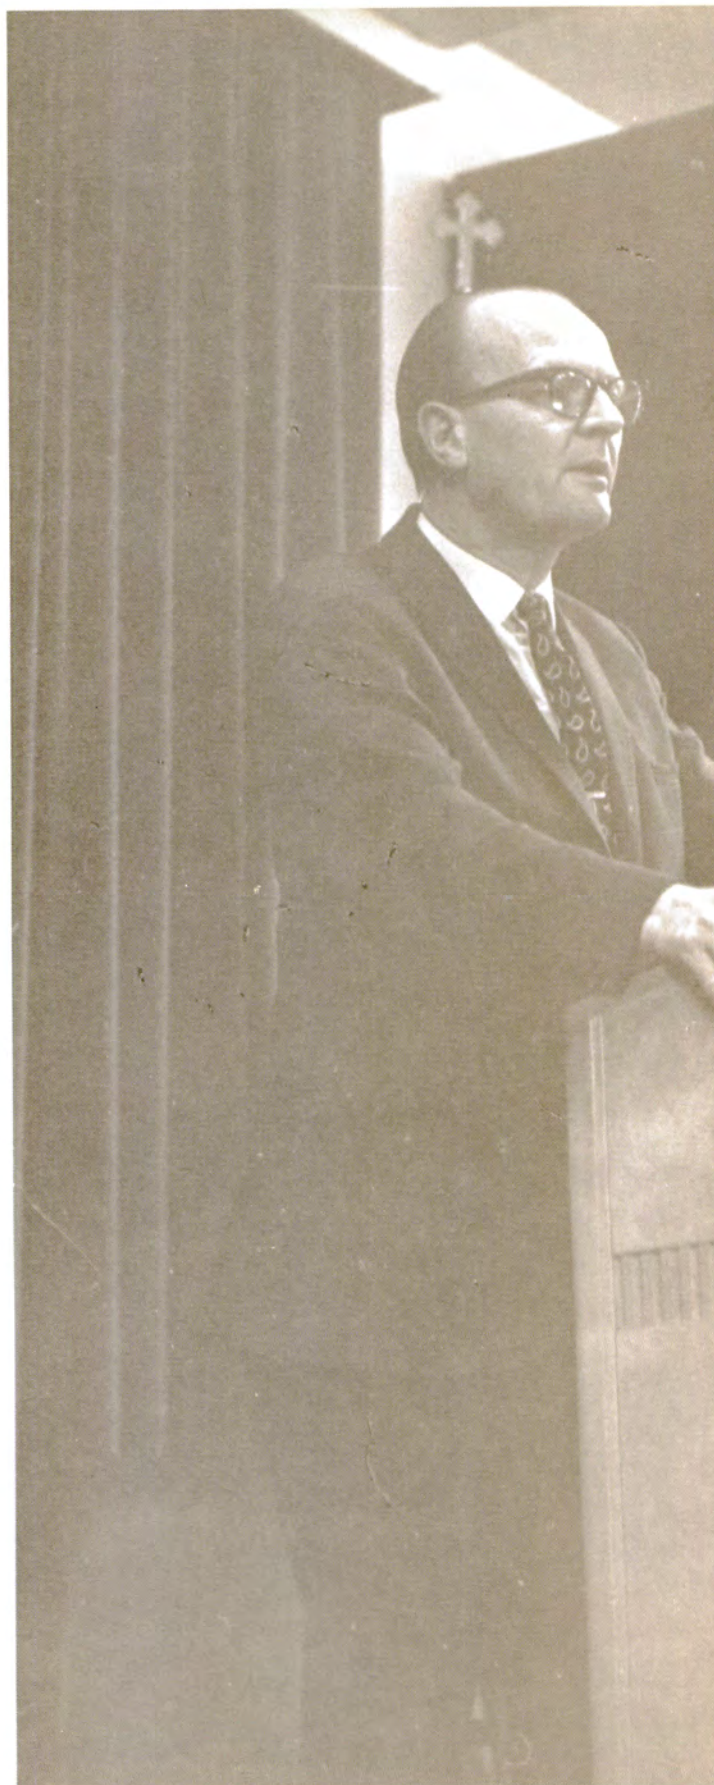

PROF. JAMES E. LYNN
Chairman of Sacred Music Dept.

PROF. GARY C. ROPER

DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

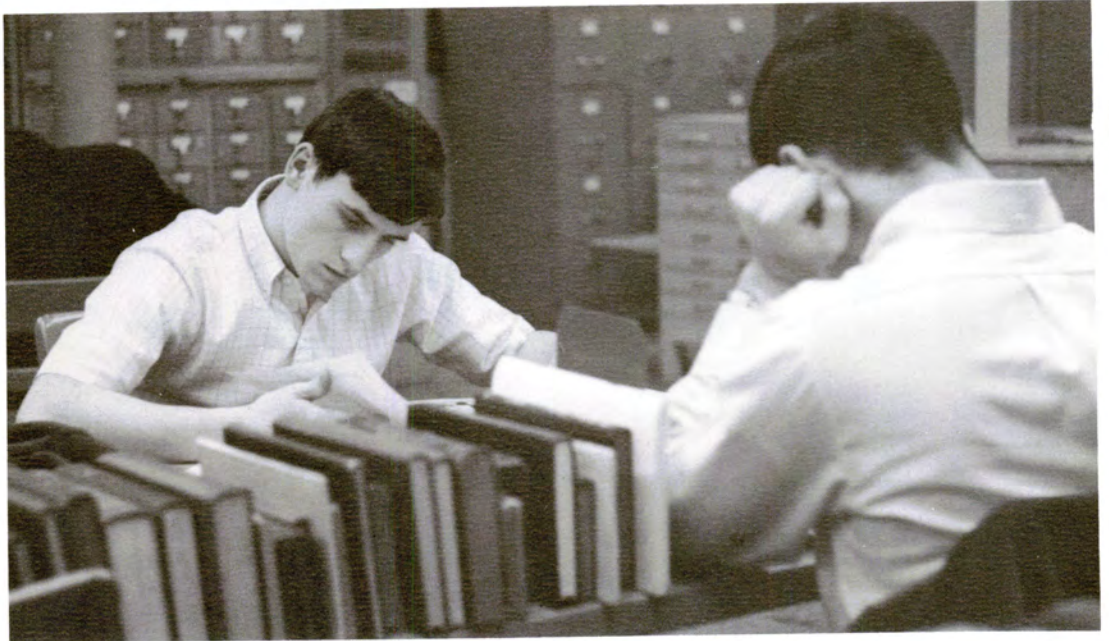

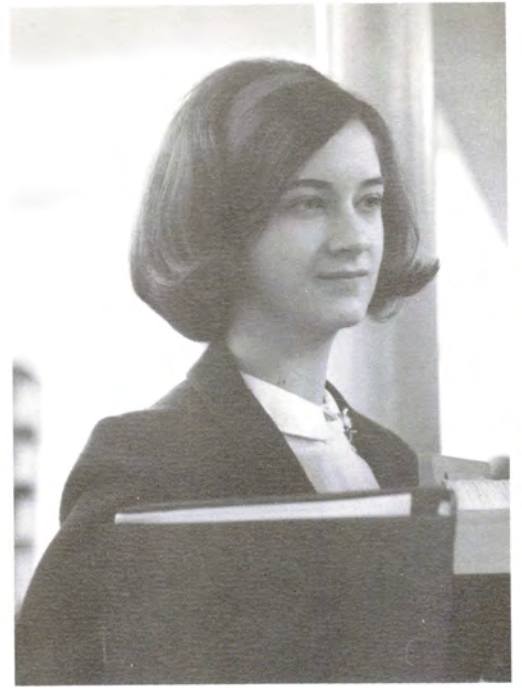

It is the purpose of the Christian Service department to assign each student a particular Christian Service obligation to be performed regularly throughout the year. The college feels that experience plays a tremendous part in the training of the student. The city of Washington, D.C. affords numerous opportunities for service and presents many needs for Christian workers. Through a Sunday School class or maybe a Bible club the student soon experiences practically some lesson that a textbook just could not explain.

THE PRAYER STEWARD DEPARTMENT

One of the most important facts in the success of a Christian's life or the life of a Christian organization is the prayer behind it. The Prayer Steward Department is composed of a group of dedicated Christians who have made pledges to pray for Washington Bible College, its needs and its students. Under the leadership of Rev. Ed Stelling, this prayer life is carried on behind the scenes of WBC and through a monthly prayer letter the needs are continually made known to all involved.

DEAR OLD W.B.C.

We Thank You For

. . . presenting the Word of God to us in a manner that has made us more eager to serve the Lord than we were when we first met you in September, 1965.

. . . instilling within us a burden of love for those we're yet to meet.

. . . providing scores of adopted brothers and sisters to weep and laugh with, to cram for exams with and now to graduate with.

. . . teaching us patience through leaky faucets and blown fuses.

. . . sharing your heritage of a Spirit-filled faculty with us.

. . . developing our appreciation of the faith life as we sought to pay our bill each semester.

. . . opening doors of opportunity for Christ in hospitals, jails, missions, churches, and on the street.

. . . disciplining us through those rules and regulations we really couldn't appreciate until now.

. . . allowing many of us to meet that "special someone" God has chosen for our life's partner.

. . . bringing us to realize the importance of prayer — alone or with a friend.

. . . helping us relax through snowball battles, football games and Sadie Hawkins Socials.

. . . giving us an opportunity to grow up.

. . . equipping us with a multitude of memories of four years on our "concrete campus" with our "sardined colleagues" that will bring a smile to our faces twenty years from now.

. . . touching each of our lives in a way this page can't express.

. . . W.B.C., it's been our privilege to know you . . . and we'll never forget you.

"For this God is our God
for ever and ever:
He will be our guide
even unto death."

Psalm 48:14

Pause to remember your Freshman September
When life was thrilling and you were willing
To be enfolded in Him and be molded
To be His servant with heart so fervent.
Foundations laid then and promises made then
Were oft' disregarded though ne'er discarded.
These now remember, and when you remember,
Then follow.

Gone that September, but pause to remember
The joy you shared then, the friends who cared then,
The preparation to bring His salvation
To those now lying in sin chains, dying.
Their need was spoken and your heart was broken.
You longed to be winning their souls from sinning.
This now remember, and when you remember,
Then follow.

EPILOGUE

Great things He hath taught us,
Great things He hath done,
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son;
But purer and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see . . .
